West returns Labor men

Western suburbs voters returned Australian Labor Party candidates at Saturday's House of Representatives elections.

And in each of the three electorates Labor candidates not only had easy victories on primary votes, but the vote for Labor increased.

Biggest increase in support was in Maribyrnong, for many years considered a marginal seat.

The Labor Member and Environment and Conservation Minister, Dr. Moss Cass, increased his majority by 7.5 per cent. on the 1972 election. He had polled 30,691 votes from a total of 54,972 when declared elected.

The Liberal candidate, Mr. R. J. Webb had polled 17,385; the DLP's Mr. R. P. McManus won 4474 and the Australia Party candidate, Mr. J. H. Watson recorded 934.

Next biggest increase was in Lalor, where the Overseas Trade Minister, Dr. Jim Cairns, increased his vote by 2.8 per cent. He had recorded 41,083 of the 65,146 votes counted when declared elected.

The Liberal candidate, Werribee solicitor Mr. Frank Purcell, won 16,170 votes.

Mr. J. G. Bacon won 476 votes for the DLP and the Australia Party candidate, Mr. W. R. Inglis, won 902 votes.

The Member for Gellibrand, Mr. Ralph Willis, increased his vote by 2.4 per cent. by recording 33,357 of the 51,932 votes counted to declare him elected.

Liberal candidate, Mr. C. E. Storey won 11,162 of this total; the DLP's Mr. A. J. Bailey 4376 and the Australia Party candidate, Mr. V. Swartz, a surprisingly-high 1075 votes.

Final figures in all three electorates are not yet available.

Australians as a whole returned the Whitlam Labor Government to power, but with an almost-certain reduced majority.

Counting of preferences in marginal seats will take until late next week to finalise.

Political observers believe also there is a good chance the A.L.P. will win a slim majority in the Senate when votes are all counted.

Swimming pool:

$1 1/2 M DREAM IS CLOSER TO REALITY

The municipal swimming pool that has long been the dream of Altona councillors past and present is closer to becoming a reality.

Altona Council has instructed consultants Camp, Scott and Furphy to draw up plans and specifications for a $580,000 indoor pool following a motion by Cr. Doug Grant at a recent general purposes committee meeting.

The pool will be built on the P. J. Lynch Reserve at Altona North.

Council has been advised by the consultants, that the provision of seating for 150 people within the pool hall would cost an extra $40,000 taking the cost to the present quote of $580,000.

Following his inquiries, Town Clerk, Syd Fell, has reported to council that there is no indication of a subsidy for the pool construction.

Preliminary drawings of the pool were shown to an officer of the Department of Youth, Sport and Recreation who said that his department did not favor the provision of separate toilet facilities within a complex.

He asked council to reconsider this proposal with a view to reducing costs because only limited funds were available.

He said that if the department agreed to a duplication of toilet facilities, the limited funds available to the department would be effectively reduced.

Fell said that in the light of inflation, council had to make its judgment on whether the consultants were to proceed with the preparation of detailed plans.

Mr. Fell has advised the consultants to familiarise themselves with the requirements of the Department of Recreation and Tourism and the Department of Youth, Sport and Recreation on design requirements.

The consultants have advised council that if they wished to reduce the costs on the pool by $400,000 they could do so by reducing the building area.

But even this would entail additional design and costs.

The consultants did not recommend a reduction of standard in finishes.

Even though a capital saving could be effected by this means the increased maintenance costs would outweigh any initial saving.

At the general purpose committee meeting of council, Town Clerk Syd

Survey: its success depends on you

The most important survey of its kind ever carried out in the western suburbs is now under way, but its success depends on residents helping.

torian Council of Social Service.

"This kind of study has never been undertaken in the west before, and I doubt if it has ever been undertaken in the same kind of detail and the same kind of depth anywhere else in Australia," Cr. Myers said.

"Its aim is to list every organisation and activity in the west, and to provide all kinds of information, including historical information."

"But the study which will be of enormous value, cannot be a success, unless people, and representatives of organisations, co-operate in providing information."

Mr. Barrett Reid of the Library Council of Victoria supported Cr. Myers' plea for information.

He said that the advantages of the survey are:

- Directories could be compiled and widely distributed.
- There would be a deeper understanding of the role of community groups.
- Groups would have access to new facilities to pass on information.

• An index of information about organisations such as the media, people in public life, churches and others could be provided.

The executive director of the Victorian Council of Social Service, Mr. Colin Benjamin, said the Westudy team was working closely with the Western Region Commission and the Western Region Council for Social Development.

He said the work included the background of information related to the Australian Government's grant of $3 million to the Western area improvement programme and the first year's grant of $700,000 for the Australian Assistance Plan for the west of Melbourne.

The chairman of the Western Region Council for Social Development, Cr. Ian Mill, said, "To get the best results for community work, we must have information, and this information must come from people and organisations with the information."

"I urge all people to complete the questionnaires — available from public libraries — and return them by the May 27 deadline."

The phone number for Westudy is 419 3555.

Party

The Altona Civic Dog Obedience has gained council permission to use the grounds at the rear of the municipal offices for its annual party on December 15. The function will take the form of a Christmas party.

SLIPS OF THE TONGUE

Mr. G. Hoare, SM, ticked off two 19-year-old youths in Williamstown Court last Thursday for using language that was vulgar, not acceptable to people they may have regarded as "winkie" and not in accordance with community standards.

One youth was heard to shout that North (Melbourne football team) would win easily next day, but a little more directly.

"I don't think Mr. Barassi would have liked that," said Mr. Hoare, who seems to be able to keep up with contemporary sporting developments. The other youth had said: "Here come the (unmentionable) coppers."

Constable Les Carson, Special Duties, Maidstone, gave evidence of the language. He said the youths were in a group of young men and women in Somers Parade, Altona, at 9.20 p.m. on Friday, May 10.

The group dispersed when police came on the scene.

Mr. Hoare convicted and discharged the outspoken ones.

(For the record, the prediction about what North would do turned out to be correct.)

D/B shottie and bandolier in the car at midnight

MAN WITH THE ARTILLERY 'GETS SCARED'

The bearded young special-duties policeman was obviously surprised when he and his colleague found the driver with a double-barrelled shotgun between the front bucket seats — and a belt containing 12-gauge shotgun cartridges around his waist.

The gun was loaded. One up each spout. The police said to the driver, in effect: What the hell are you carrying around all this artillery for?

His reply, the armed with an offensive weapon.

Williamstown court was told last Thursday, was "I get scared at night".

The man, Riani Dzekofsky, 39, of Alwyn Street, West Footscray, was sentenced to one month's gaol for being when the defendant's car approached.

Constable Walsh said he motioned with his torch for the defendant's car to stop. But it accelerated.

The police followed it and eventually intercepted it, questioned the driver and found the shotgun.

At the Altona police station later, Dzekofsky said he had just come from work in Kororoit Creek Road, and spoke of his fears.

He said: "There are many silly people from different countries here". The defendant agreed that the shotgun was loaded but not cocked.

"I doubt very much his statement that he was frightened".

Mr. Hoare pointed out that even in self-defence people had to exercise care and the use of firearms of this nature could easily lead to a manslaughter charge.

Mr. Hoare declared the shotgun and ammunition forfeit and cancelled the defendant's shooter's licence, saying it was a matter for the Chief Commissioner of Police if he should ever be allowed to have one again.

Constable Kim Walsh told the court that he was patrolling with Sergeant Roger Sievwright. They were checking another car

Val's Column

Hello Girls,

There is something magical about the way some women can dramatise their appearance with eye makeup. They achieve an almost hypnotic quality with different shades and the knack of making it all look naturally theirs. When talking or listening to someone it is normal to look directly at the eyes. Expertly applied eye makeup can change a pleasant, but not outstanding, face into something of beauty. It is however an acquired art — something you must practice until you achieve perfection. The skin around the eyes is extremely delicate. When applying makeup or creams be very gentle; once rubbed or stretched the skin stays that way. Eye creams — Revlon, Eterna 27 Eye Cream, Coty's Avocado Eye Cream, or Max Factors, are specially formulated for this sensitive area and will prevent lines forming.

Cyclax consider the eye area needs day and night thought, so you can apply a little Neo Juvex Day eye cream. This smooths away tension lines as well as helping prevent ageing dryness of this delicate area. Overnight Cyclax give you anti-wrinkle, eye oil. Not Not greasy. This is a combination of the finest oils that are the simplest to apply, no dragging as you may with a cream.

Then Mary Quant have the twin care kit. A swivel case — in a lipstick form — eye care stick and a lash conditioner in the form of a mascara wand only, instead of color, you have natural protein conditioner for your lashes.

Fatigue or illness can accentuate darkness under the eyes. This can easily be disguised with a skin-colored stick or cream especially made for this purpose.

Sweet Earth oils and sprays have blossomed (so to speak) from musk, patchouli, sandalwood and amber into rare flower scents.

Precious wild natural scents in long lasting oils and popular sprays.

Tuberose — a rich, heady bloom that intensifies at twilight.

Jasmine — is fresh and delicious.

Mimosa — honeyed and clinging.

These oils cling to your skin and linger for hours. The sprays are for quickness and the pleasure of using, refreshing and outdoorsey.

HOLIDAY MONEY FOR ALTONA'S POOR FAMILIES

The Western Region Council for Social Development has allocated $1000 for holiday grants to low income families in Altona.

The allocation resulted from a submission by Altona Council.

Altona's Community Welfare Officer, Mrs. Lorna Carruthers has already made representations to schools and churches in the municipality for an indication of areas of need.

Town clerk Syd Fell reporting to the council said because of the co-operation received by Mrs. Carruthers it would be possible to assist some people to enjoy a holiday during the school holiday term.

The Western Region Commission has also recommended to the Government an allocation of $5835 towards maintenance of the Altona Senior Citizens' Club.

An allocation of $1000 has been recommended towards the costs incurred by Altona council in the recent National Fitness campaign.

At the recent meeting of council, Cr. Doug Grant moved that the information from the Western Regional Council for Social Development be noted.

"These are all areas where money can be used," he said.

'A Funny Thing' prepares

Rehearsals have started for the Williamstown Little Theatre Pumpkin Players production of A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum.

Two auditions have already been held — the second because the first was poorly attended.

Even after the second audition, the play was not completely cast and the director, Grahame Murphy, completed the cast list by making phone enquiries around Melbourne.

It seems this is becoming quite regular, not only at WLT and Pumpkins but with Melbourne small theatres generally.

The respected Melbourne organist, Mr. David Johnson, will play the theatre organ for both seasons of Funny Thing.

The next production of the Altona Drama Group,

430 APPLY FOR RATE REMISSIONS

Altona Council has received 430 applications from pensioner ratepayers seeking rate remissions.

The applications are being checked by the Department of Social Security to confirm whether all applicants are entitled to remission in accordance with the provisions of the Municipalities Act 1973.

Altona Council recently wrote to the Prime Minister, Mr. Whitlam, seeking information on his Government's attitude towards subsidising remission of rates payable to pensioners.

The Minister for Social Security, Mr. Bill Hayden has advised council that the Committee of Inquiry established by the Social Welfare Commission into aged persons' housing is considering the desirability of uniform legislation on rebates of council rates.

Water and sewerage rates, land tax and other charges made to aged people in their own homes and to homes for the aged, will also be considered.

Pensioner ratepayers in Altona are entitled to a rate remission of $40 under the Municipalities Act 1973.

The State Government contributes a $20 subsidy and so does Altona Council. But Altona Council wants to grant a total remission of $40 which requires a $20 subsidy from the State Government.

Resigned

Council has accepted the resignation of Mrs. Linda McKie as third group assistant at the Lindwood Avenue Kindergarten. Mrs. McKie left Altona. Her resignation became effective at the end of the first term.

Request

Altona Council has referred to the Arts Advisory Council a request by the Altona City Youth Theatre to use that name in their efforts to become a company limited.

West State school teachers angry NO STRIKE BUT THE FEELING'S TENSE

'WE'VE JUST BEEN PUSHED BACK ...'

Altona West Primary School staff facilities are deplorable, according to Victorian Teachers Union branch vice-president, Mr. Bruce Antonoff.

Mr. Antonoff, a grade 6 teacher, said strike action was unlikely, "but we find it difficult, if not impossible, to work under these conditions."

● Thirty staff sharing a vice-principals and remedial reading room because the 12 ft. x 24 ft. staffroom is being used by grade three.

"We've made approaches through the VTU and directly to the Education Department to have adequate accommodation provided, but we've just been pushed back," Mr. Antonoff said.

"The inadequacies were first pointed out to the VTU and Education Department in March and since then there has been a lot of shelving."

"On May 11, we sent a telegram to the Minister of Education, Mr. Thompson, requesting information on what had happened. The Minister's secretary rang and said we could see the Minister on Monday, last week," he said.

'Came to head'

"It all came to a head when the Minister's secretary rang again on Tuesday to say the Minister had contacted the Public Works' Department with a view to expediting calling for tenders."

Mr. Antonoff said a staff meeting after the May school holidays will decide what action is taken.

Mr. Thompson was "looking into it" and "not available" when The Star tried to contact him for comment.

Later, the Minister's secretary, Mr. Graham Mellett, telephoned The Star to say Mr. Antonoff had not been told he could meet Mr. Thompson.

"And the matter now rests with the Public Works' Department."

WANT A COMEDY ROLE?

Altona Drama Group will hold auditions for its next comedy production at The Homestead, Queen Street, Altona, on Monday, June 3, at 7.30 p.m.

A play has not been chosen.

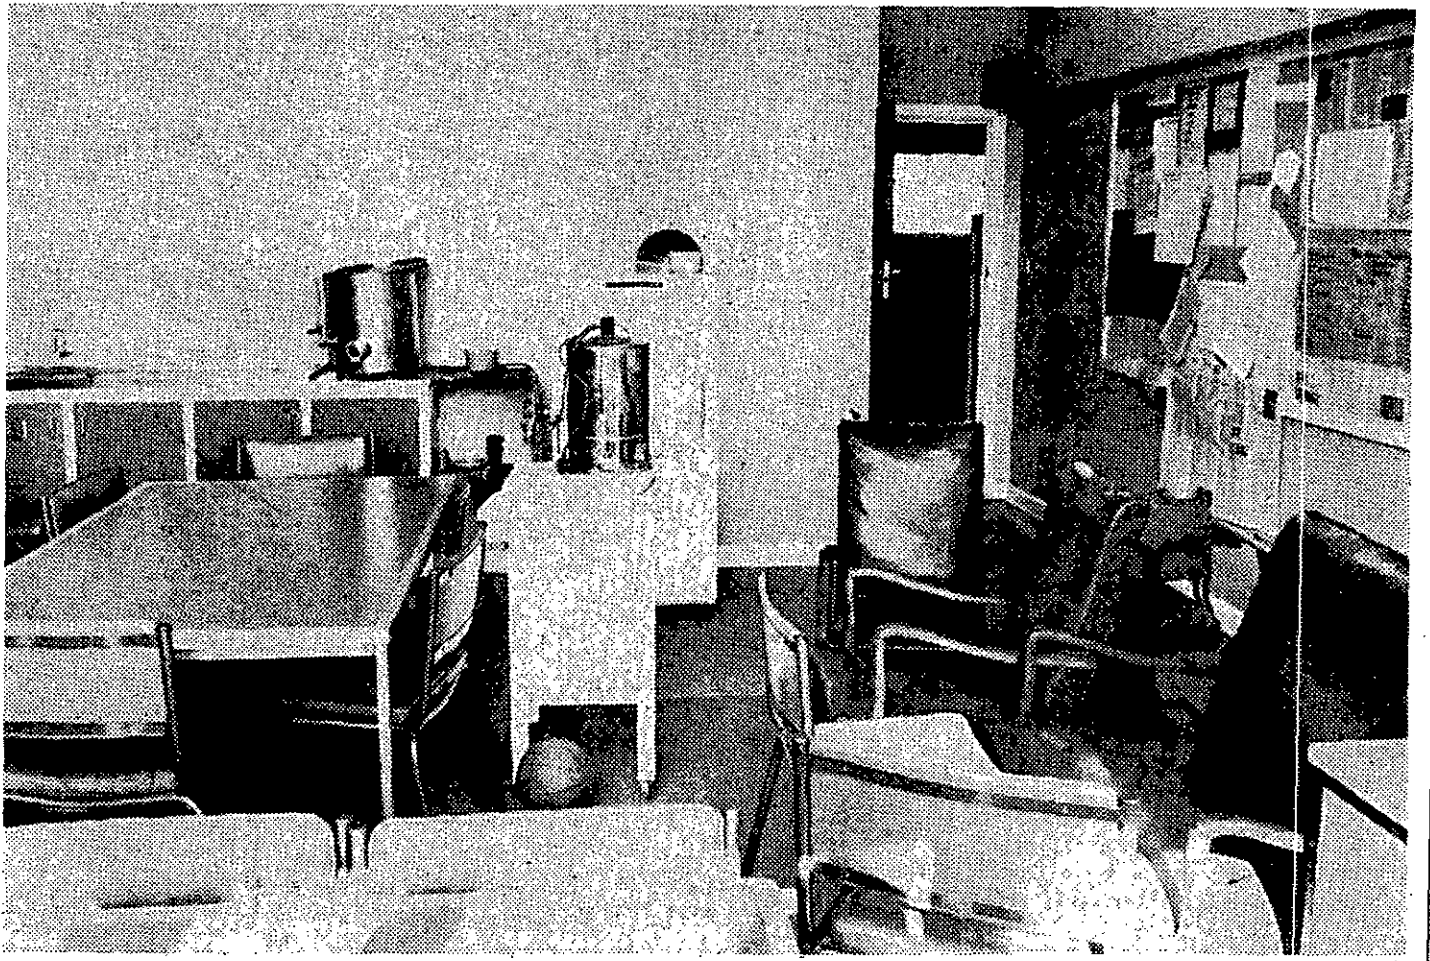

For details, call Barbara Freebody, on 398 1594.

The group's comedy-thriller "Ladies In Retirement", opens on May 27, for a three night season.

Tickets are available from Carol Huggins (398 2645) or Fred Mannings Music Centre, Queen Street, Altona.

Marching girls special effort

The Altona Marching Girls' May 18 special effort result was: No. 2454 (Pam Smith, Sunshine Guards).

● The vice-principals' office at Altona West Primary School. It is being used as a staff room and a remedial reading room because the room designated for staff use is grade three's classroom.

Pyjama Game was great success

By a Special Writer

Altona City Youth Theatre undoubtedly had their most resounding success with their most recent production of the Pyjama Game.

Near-capacity crowds laughed at, applauded, and even sang with the cast during their performance of the well-known musical.

Peter Howes, as Sid Sorokin, the male lead, was in a large part responsible for the success.

He handled the difficult part with finesse, and his rendition of Hey There was most heart-warming, and wonderfully received.

Julie Findlay in the female lead role of Babe Williams, showed a great deal of power in her singing and was very impressive.

Christine Small and Audrey Simpson were brilliantly funny in their supporting roles, and quite allayed any fears of dull moments with touches of witty slapstick.

Indeed the whole cast was extremely competent.

The music was well handled by the small group and was very well produced, especially in the handling of the flute.

The sets and lighting were generally good although perhaps a little more imagination could have been used in the corridor scene.

Some special commendation must go to the stage hands for manipulation of the tricky knife throwing scene.

Probably the outstanding feature of the season was the bounding enthusiasm shown by the cast.

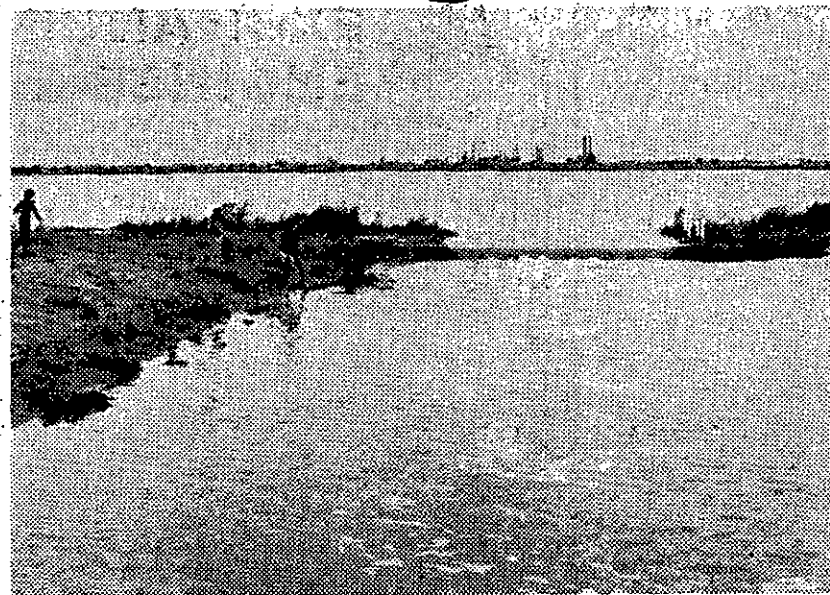

One could not help but be caught in the mood of the musical, and for this, the casting and the use of his performers Allan Burrows, the director, must be heartily congratulated.

It is to be hoped that people continue to support such final local talent in future productions by the Altona City Youth Theatre.

$300,000 BUILDING CENTRE IN ALTONA

A $300,000 buildings material centre has been opened in Chambers Road, North Altona.

Hick Timbers, the firm which operated from Parker Street, Williamstown, for almost eighty years, built the centre to serve handymen, builders and industry.

Manager of Hick Timbers, Mr. John Hick, told the Star that when the Westgate Bridge was first announced his firm realised it would enable builders' yards in South Melbourne to service the western suburbs more quickly than Hick Timbers could from Williamstown.

"We realised we would have to move so we bought the 2½ acre site in Chambers Road and began planning a modern building materials centre from which it would meet the needs of the western suburbs and also the Melbourne area across the bridge," he said.

The centre, which opened in March, was designed by business efficiency engineers and cost about $300,000. Its features include:

- Located in one of the most accessible areas in the western suburbs;
- 1000 square metres of covered-in space for timber and other building materials;
- 140 square metres of covered-in space for retail lines;
- 1100 square metres of free-off-street customer car parking space;

• A heavy-duty circular driveway to obviate trucks having to turn in Chambers Road;

• A new simplified highly efficient ordering system.

The move from Williamstown to North Altona is not the first time Hick Timbers has shifted.

Originally, the firm was located on the Commonwealth Reserve where the Liston Tennis Courts are now. Until the turn of the century its main business was saw milling, building materials and ship joinery.

In 1911, Hick Timbers, or Hick's Timber Yard as it was then known, moved to 16 Parker Street, opposite the Williamstown Post Office. Whereas the move from the Commonwealth Reserve was by horse transport, the move from Parker Street to Chambers Road, North Altona, was by straddle truck.

Two straddle trucks operating continuously shifted the entire stock of timber and other building materials. These were supplemented by Hick's own modern transport fleet.

Equipment which also had to be shifted included woodworking machinery, including several circular saws, and office furniture and records.

Mr. Hick said that in planning the building materials centre great care had been taken to ensure that every aspect of the building and site works complied with Altona

Council's building and anti-pollution regulations.

"Being an old-established firm, we are proud of the western suburbs, and we wanted our new centre to be a credit to it," he said.

Mr. Hick said the centre would not be fully completed until lawns had been laid and trees and shrubs planted. This will be accomplished in the cooler weather of autumn, when the work will be supervised at his firm's request by the Altona Council staff to ensure it meets local standards.

'Sweet Charity' with a brilliant touch

By our Theatre Critic

The Musical Sweet Charity is being performed in Williamstown with a touch of brilliance and professionalism rarely if ever-before seen in an amateur theatre company production in Melbourne.

The production is a difficult one to stage, throwing out challenges to even top professional producers. And Williamstown Light Opera Company has taken up the challenges and won.

The lighting and other technical effects required for Sweet Charity are normally far beyond the bounds of amateur groups. But not in Williamstown.

The story of the musical revolves around the men in the female lead, Charity's, life and as Charity is a dance hall hostess, there are plenty of men to match plenty of dancing.

The show comprises a night of surprises.

The overture, by a first-rate orchestra sets you in the mood for a fast-moving show.

You may query the statement "first-rate orchestra" but it defies criticism. It is the best in living memory assembled in the western region of Melbourne and is, in fact, "first rate".

The dancing routines

— and there are many of them — are under the direction of Carolyn McCoombe and are, to be somewhat unprofessional in description, a "wow" to say the least.

Charity is played by Christine Andrew, who turns in one of the best performances I have ever seen by an amateur.

Not only her acting, but her dancing and singing as well, are — like the whole show — first class.

The sets, although essentially abstract, are more than adequate and the lighting effects are dazzling and unbelievable for an amateur company.

The chorus singing and movement are of the high standard we have come to expect from WLOC: the song The Rhythm of Life just stops the show as it grips the audience in its progress to a magnificent finish.

It leaves not only the singers breathless; but the audience as well.

The credit

The show, as a whole, moves as a well-oiled and precisely-adjusted machine; without the mechanical smear that spoils so many amateur productions.

Much of the credit for this must go to the stage crew, with their incredibly fast scene changes.

There is so much that could be written about the show it is hard to know where to stop. And nothing of it could be anything but praise.

So it is sufficient to advise you not to miss it.

There are three performances this week, tomorrow (Thursday), Friday and Saturday evenings.

Sweet Charity is being presented at the Williamstown Technical School Assembly Hall, in Kororoit Creek Road.

Information regarding tickets is available by telephoning Mrs. Doris Lalor, on 397 8012 or tickets are available at the door.

Red Cross runs a movie special

Footscray Citizens' Red Cross Appeals' Committee has obtained the use of the Kodak Multivision film 'Australia — Picture Frontier'.

The programme will be presented at St. Augustine's Parish Hall, Somerville Road, Yarraville on May 30, at 8 p.m.

'Australia — Picture Frontier', has been shown to capacity audiences throughout Australia.

It was a feature of the 1973 Moomba Festivities, when it was shown at Melbourne Town Hall.

The show portrays in a most exciting and vivid manner, the length and breadth of Australia.

This includes from city to outback animals and people, and flowers to industry.

The show has been described as an "exciting visual experience", as it frequently shows slides and movies on the screen at the one time. There also is a sequence which was shot at Ballarat.

The film was made for people who are interested in all types of photography.

Almost 1,200 original slides and several hundred feet of movie footage are included in the multi-screen presentation.

Admission will be $1 adults and 50 cents children. Proceeds go to the National Red Cross Annual Appeal.

Tickets are available from the Town Hall, Miss Orton, ring 68 5558, Mr. J. Kerr on 68 3751, and from various businesses in Footscray and Yarraville.

FRIENDS SNOOKER

Final of the Western Suburbs Elderly Citizens' Billiards Association was won by the House of Friendship team.

Winning team members were J. Martin, R. J. Clarke (capt.), K. G. Lee, E. Williams and J. Coley.

Four association members also have been elected life members of the association.

They are Messrs. F. Heard, F. McCormack, W. Meredith and T. O'Shannassy.

More talent for quest

Sergio Citarella is the winner of the fifth heat in The Strand Hotel Talent Quest, held every Friday night.

The winner has been in Australia two years and in this short time he has had much experience.

Mr. Citarella's first step in music in this country was gaining three gongs on Radio Auditions, then moving on to Kevin Dennis New Faces, where he finished in second place.

Later this year, Mr. Citarella will be competing on Show Case.

Before coming to Australia from Italy Mr. Citarella was a drummer in a group and spent some time touring Germany.

In the quest he chose to sing Quando, Quando, Quando and usually sings Engelbert Humperdinck-type numbers.

Mr. Citarella is a data control clerk and has many hobbies outside of his profession. These include interests in languages, art, reading and soccer.

To be a professional entertainer is Mr. Citarella's ambition.

And with his talented voice and the encouragement of his charming wife he seems sure to go a long way.

They were broke, but ... THE BOYS HAD THE GADGETS

What do you do if you're just about out of petrol — and money?

If you have the gear, of course, you can get a bit from some other fellow's tank.

That's what these two young men did on April 15, at Altona.

They pleaded guilty to a larceny charge.

The police had in the Williamstown Court last Thursday some articles they had found in the car the defendants were in.

"Please show me this gadgetry," said Mr. G. Hoare, SM.

The "gadgetry" consisted of a plastic bucket, two plastic tubes and an old common or garden watering can.

It was a fair cop. The lads admitted that they had a go at another car and finally got a gallon or so from the one that led to their being charged.

Dennis Hare admitted that it was basically his idea to get the petrol: he had to get to his girlfriend's home and they'd run out of petrol and money.

Well, it was only a gallon of petrol — but there was the future to think about.

"Is this going to be your way of life," Mr. Hoare asked the lads, mentioning what he called the "paraphernalia" found in their car.

"No, sir," they said. Mr. Hoare convicted them. And he found out that Dennis Hare, 20, of Henderson Street, Laverton North, had erred before.

"Mr. Hare," he said. "You could well finish up behind high walls. It was your motor car and your idea."

He fined Hare $20 — in default two days' gaol. The lad seemed distressed.

"I'm just starting a new job, sir," he said. Mr. Hoare explained patiently what default meant. He just has to dig up 20 bucks in the next few weeks.

Graham Sharpe, 20, of Kay Crescent, Laverton, had not come into contact with the law before. Mr. Hoare put him on a $50 bond to be of good behavior for 12 months.

The police were left with the "gadgets". Well, they'll be useful on the Altona police station lawn.

It would seem an awful waste of time to sell them at public auction.

STAMP CLUB FORMS

Stamp collecting is booming in Altona.

It's become so popular that irregular stamp gatherings in Altona City Library are to become regular meetings in The Homestead, opposite the library in Queen Street.

Anyone interested in helping form a stamp club, is invited to a meeting in The Homestead on Thursday, May 23 at 7 p.m.

Further details available from Mary, 398 2255.

VIKINGS CRUSH BROOKLYN BUT PLAY POORLY

• Vikings' captain-coach Mal Tisdale shows after the match. Mal gave Brooklyn's pivot a "bath".

Altona City crushed Brooklyn 12.14 (98) to three points on Saturday... but the Vikings played poorly.

Brooklyn, beaten in almost every position, restricted Altona City to six goals in three quarters. A six-goal last quarter was the Vikings only high spot.

Altona City should have scored more than 20 goals to boost its percentage, but players were too individualistic. Teamwork practically was non-existent until the last quarter.

Top Vikings were ruckman Dennis Boyle, centreman Mal Tisdale and back pocket Steve Chatfield.

Boyle made a spirited comeback after badly bruising a shin in the first quarter. Tisdale controlled the pivot with apparent ease and Chatfield played defence like a veteran.

Altona City missed rovers Jock O'Connor and John Hampton (injured). O'Connor shone with the reserves and should be in the senior line-up this week.

Richard Zapart, who played in Tasmania last season, has returned and is expected to strengthen the Vikings' back line.

Scores: Altona City 12.14 (98) d. Brooklyn 0.3 (3).

Goals: R. Schwabe, 5, R. and G. Morgan, D. Brennan, M. Tisdale, W. Jones, M. Howard, J. Bebed.

Best: Boyle, Tisdale, Chatfield, Munro, Jones, Brennan.

RESERVES

Ruckman Tommy Hogan and forward Wayne Jones (Seven goals) led Altona City to a convincing 139 point win against Newport Methodists.

Scores: Altona City 23.21 (159) d. Newport Methodists 3.2 (20). Goals: Jones 7, Howard, S. Grainger, 4, Sorrel, Luck, 2, McFadyen, K. Bebed, P. Grainger, Scarfe.

Seven wins

Altona Workingmen's Club won seven games in last week's indoor bias bowls' pennant round.

Section 7 and 9 sides had a bye.

DETAILS: Section 1 (J. Briggs) d. Maribyrnong Park, 20-18; Section 2 (H. Gibson) d. Maribyrnong Park, 43-13; section 3 (B. Cameron) d. Maribyrnong Park, 28-20; section 4 (L. Findlay) d. Maribyrnong Park, 25-17; section 5 (V. Ferguson) d. Maribyrnong Park, 27-17.

Section 6 (A. Yates) d. Maribyrnong Park, 27-12; section 7 — bye, section 8 (J. Gore) d. Moonee Ponds, 27-14; section 9 — bye.

UNDER 17

Under 17 coach Bob Jones told the story of the Altona City — Williamstown Fourths clash: "We kicked ourselves out of the game."

Altona City had eight more scoring shots and lost by seven points.

Scores: Williamstown Fourths 8.5 (53) d. Altona City 5.16 (46).

Goals: P. Matovich, 2; I. Laidlaw, B. Mildenhall, J. Taylor.

Best: M. O'Connor, H.

UNDER 15

Westport beat Altona City when it scored six goals to one point in the first quarter. Altona City matched Westport for three quarters.

Scores: Westport 10.5 (65) d. Altona City 3.4 (22).

Goals: B. Ridge, 2 (other goalkicker not available). Best: D. Richards, M. Barrie, R. Groen, K. Vogan, P. Stephens, B. Greenbough.

UNDER 13

Altona City started poorly, but fought back to defeat Westport by three points.

Scores: Altona City 3.6 (24) d. Westport 3.3 (21).

Goals: N. Condon, 2; P. Clarke. Best: N. Condon, T. Knell, P. Johns, P. Richards, D. Schmidt.

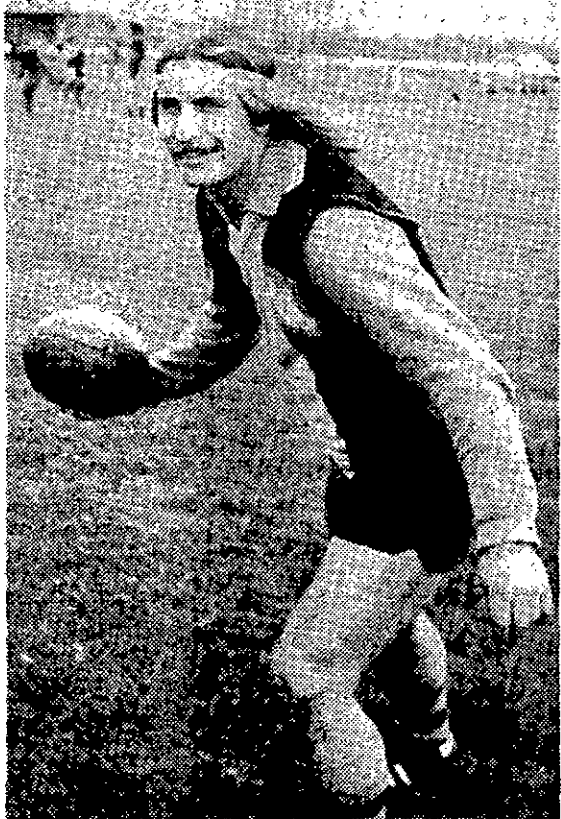

UNDER 11

Altona City looked a beaten side at three quarter time, but battled back to topple undefeated Westport by five points.

Scores: Altona City 4.7 (31) d. Westport 4.2 (28).

Goals: A. Owens, 2; S. Hynes, M. Cooper.

Best: M. Pinney, G. Evans, C. Brown, A. Owens, S. Hynes.

Rugged defender Richard Zapart, above, is back after a season in Tasmania.

Soccer side draws with Frankston

Altona Soccer Club drew 1-1 with Frankston at the weekend.

Both goals were scored in the second half.

Altona started stylishly. At the 10th minute a good shot by Jim Ockers just missed. At the 31st minute Keith Murray raced along the right wing and put a cross over to Keith Monteth, who headed the ball into the net.

Monteth's goal was disallowed because a linesman said the ball was out of play.

Frankston's Peter Avent narrowly missed a goal in the 39th minute. The match was scoreless at half time.

Altona attacked vigorously in the second half. Ian Hynds put the ball to Keith Murray, who sent it to David Cooper on the right wing. Cooper crossed to Keith Murray and Murray headed into the net.

Frankston scored in the 75th minute. The scorer was Peter Avent.

Craig Copley (injured) was replaced by David McNell in the second half.

UNDER-14

Sunshine Heights provided Altona's opposition on Saturday at Glengala Reserve.

As is always expected from Heights, a very close and hard fought match followed, with Heights taking first half honors with a one goal lead.

Altona came back strongly to overcome the deficit and take a one goal lead.

Heights fought to hold on, but Heights scored another two goals.

Scores: Sunshine City 3 d. Altona 2.

UNDER-13

West Newport found a disjointed Altona side in an obliging mood on Saturday at Kim Reserve, and ran out easy winners.

Two goals down in the first 15 minutes, Altona started to show some fight and John Gilpin was very unlucky to see his shot beat the keeper only to pass six inches the wrong side of the post.

Slavo Stojanovsky was back in the hunt with a good goal just before half time.

A repetition of the first half, mistimed clearances and mis-kicking allowed West Newport to add two more goals.

Scores: West Newport 4 d. Altona 1.

UNDER-12

Playing in ankle-deep mud at Gardens Reserve on Sunday Altona lost its unbeaten tag against Sunshine City.

City opened the scoring from what appeared to be an offside position. Despite this upset, Altona fought back to equalise when Nuri Balovfsky side-footed home a pass from Marty Bozie.

A shot from City produced a great save from Wayne Muschally, who could not hold the greasy ball and City got its third.

From a corner kick, Lars Murphy flighted the ball for Martin Gray to head home Altona's equaliser.

City's centre-forward, however, added the decisive goal by lobbing the ball over the keeper's head and into the net.

Scores: Sunshine City 3 d. Altona 1.

UNDER-11A

Altona's undefeated run was never seriously threatened against Mossfiel on Sunday.

With the forward line moving well, a Bruno Cozzella's left-foot shot found the net to open the scoring.

Jimmy Bartollo added a second soon after and a third and fourth goal by Bartollo and two by Cozzella provided a comfortable 4-0 lead at the half.

Billy Hamill added two goals in the second half.

Scores: Altona 6 d. Mossfiel nil.

UNDER-11B

With last week's win still in their minds, Altona entered Sunday's home game with added confidence.

Melton B was put on the defensive in the opening minutes, but soon settled down and mounted its own attacks.

In one of these, an Altona defender brought down an opponent in the penalty area and the resultant kick beat home keeper Gary Hale to give Melton the lead at half-time.

Henry Skudlarski, substituting centre forward, equalised for Altona.

Melton regained the lead when Altona's defence failed to clear a right wing attack.

Skudlarski again restored the balance as he cleverly beat two defenders before slotting the ball past the keeper.

An unfortunate fumble shortly after denied the same player a possible third goal.

Scores: Altona 2 drew with Melton 2.

UNDER 10

In a one-sided game at

Melton 'B' failed to break Altona's successful run.

Robert Rotin opened the score with a right foot shot high into the net.

Altona continued to press forward and goals were scored by Duane Fitzgerald, Andrew Reed, Gordon McFarlane and Eddie Ostrowski.

Scores: Altona 6 d. Melton B nil.

UNDER 9

Mossfiel hosted Altona in what proved to be a fast, open game.

Altona's forward line showed good co-ordination and was rewarded when Eddie Plesser scored from the spot just before half time.

Cliff Scott provided the cross from the right wing to give Plesser his second goal.

The same duo repeated the move shortly after to give Plesser his hat trick.

Scores: Altona 3. Mossfiel nil.

UNDER 10

The newly formed under 10 B side played its first match on Saturday, away to Sunshine Heights. The under 10s met with success.

Scores: Altona 2 d. Sunshine Heights nil.
